

THE MEDITERRANEAN CLASSIC.

Since 1952

Kinnie, Malta's own favourite soft drink is a unique tasting, alcohol-free refreshing beverage made with orange flavour and aromatic herbs, which was launched by Farsons in 1952. Its golden amber colour and bitter-sweet taste make Kinnie an excellent thirst quencher. It is best enjoyed 'neat', with a slice of orange and lots of ice and also mixes excellently with a number of alcoholic drinks, cocktails and mocktails.

Kinnie, la boisson gazeuse préférée de Malte, est une boisson rafraîchissante sans alcool, à saveur d'alcool, à base d'oranges et d'herbes aromatiques, lancée par Farsons en 1952. Sa couleur ambrée dorée et son goût amer font de Kinnie un excellent désaltérant. Il est idéal s'il est dégusté avec une tranche d'orange et beaucoup de glace. Il se mélange également parfaitement avec un certain nombre de boissons alcoolisées, cocktails et cocktails sans alcool.
